

iFabric Announces Renewal of License Agreement with TUMI to Continue Integration of PROTX2® Technology

MARKHAM, ON / ACCESSWIRE / September 22, 2025 / iFabric Corp. (“iFabric” or the “Company”) (TSX: IFA OTCQX: IFABF) today announced that its wholly owned subsidiary, Intelligent Fabric Technologies (North America) Inc. (“IFTNA”), has renewed its license agreement with TUMI, Inc. (“TUMI”) to continue integrating IFTNA’s PROTX2® antimicrobial solutions across select TUMI products. The renewal extends the relationship first announced on May 5, 2021, by a further period of five years. ACCESS Newswire

“We’re excited to extend our partnership with TUMI, one of the world’s premier performance-luxury travel brands,” said Giancarlo Beevis, President & CEO of IFTNA. “Seeing PROTX2 featured in such a globally respected portfolio underscores our shared commitment to performance, durability, and everyday protection for travelers,” concluded Mr. Beevis.

Todd Barenberg, Senior Vice President, Global Sourcing at TUMI, commented: “TUMI looks forward to our continued partnership with IFTNA through the utilization of their PROTX2 eco-friendly antimicrobial solutions. As leaders in the industry, we’re committed to delivering best-in-class protection to our consumers.”

The renewed program will continue to feature PROTX2 in linings for TUMI’s 19 Degree Polycarbonate carry-on and related pieces, and in linings and select body fabrics for Travel Kits, Toiletry Kits, Laundry Bags and key Accessories—including items within the Alpha Bravo, Alpha, Arrive’ and McLaren collections.
